

Beautiful Homeland

1. A cit - y a - waits us we soon shall be - hold, Whose walls are of
2. The friends that we love who have gone on be - fore Now wait for our
3. Oh, home - land! dear home - land, tho' eye hath not seen, And some - times the jas - per whose streets are of gold; Not half of its glo - ries have com - ing on yon - der bright shore, Where day nev - er fades, tears may shad - ow - y clouds in - ter - vene, Thy light we'll be - hold and thy

D. S.— place our clear Sav - ior has

Fine
ev - er been told,
fall nev - er more, Bless - ed home - land, dear home - land, sweet home of the soul.
pas - tures so green, gone to pre - pare, Bless - ed home - land, dear home - land, sweet home of the soul.

Chorus

O I long, yes, I long there to dwell, there to dwell,

Beautiful Homeland

D. S. al Fine

Mid the pleas - ures no mor - tal can tell, In the no mor - tal can tell,

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'Beautiful Homeland'. It consists of two staves: a vocal line in the treble clef and a piano accompaniment line in the bass clef. The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are: 'Mid the pleas - ures no mor - tal can tell, In the no mor - tal can tell,'. The score ends with a double bar line and a fermata over the final notes.