

His Smile Is Pay Enough For Me

A \flat /E \flat - SOL

Dedicated to Prof. C. R. Mullins whose christian life and sweet singing has endeared him to so many of our Southern people.

1. I love my Sav - ior so I sel - dom stop To think a - bout the
2. Then when I feel per - haps His heart is grieved It fills my own soul
3. Some speak of great re - wards when life is done And they shall stand up 4. I'll take the frowns of all man - kind if I The love - light in my tri - als by the way; For when I feel I have His lov - ing smile Then with the deep - est pain, And I go mourn - ing all the night or day Un - on the glass - y sea With vic - tor's palms and star - ry crowns but O, One Sav - ior's eyes may see, For what is ough of oth - er joys to this- The

Refrain

tru - ly I re - ceive suf - fi - cient pay.
til I feel I have His smile a - gain. One smile from Je - sus is suf - smile from Christ is pay e - nough for me.
smile of Christ is pay e - nough for me.

fi - cient pay For all the tri - als summed up in a day; For just one

His Smile Is Pay Enough For Me

smile from Him drives clouds a - way Yes Je - sus' smile for me is sweet-est pay.

The image shows a musical score for the hymn "His Smile Is Pay Enough For Me". It consists of two staves, a treble staff on top and a bass staff on the bottom, both in the key of B-flat major (three flats). The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff, aligned with the notes. The score ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.