

Idle Stand Not All The Day

Ab/Eb - SOL

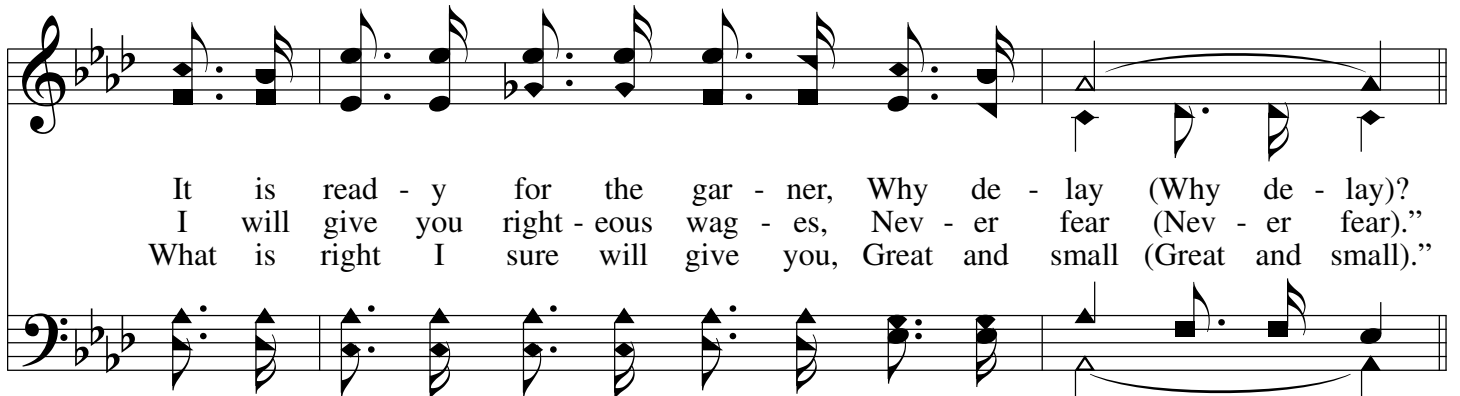

1. There's a place where we may la - bor, One and all (One and all);
2. "In the mar - ket i - dly stand - ing, Are there more (Are there more)"
3. And the Mas - ter still is wait - ing, Call - ing still (Call - ing still):

To the har - vest fields that rip - en, Hear the call (Hear the call);
Calls the Mas - ter of the har - vest, O'er and o'er (O'er and o'er);
"Go ye all in - to My vine - yard, With a will (With a will);

I - dle stand not all the day, Stow the Mas - ter's grain a - way;
Calls the Mas - ter, far and near: "I - dle stand no long - er here,
Be it ear - ly, be it late, I - dle there no long - er wait,

It is read - y for the gar - ner, Why de - lay (Why de - lay)?
I will give you right - eous wag - es, Nev - er fear (Nev - er fear)."
What is right I sure will give you, Great and small (Great and small)."

Idle Stand Not All The Day

Chorus

Why de - lay? Haste a - way, Soon will come set - tling day; While the gold - en har - vest wait Ripe to fall (Ripe to fall); Stand not at the mar - ket gate, Hear, oh, hear the Mas - ter's call:

“Work you My de - sire, I'll give, will give you hire, (give you hire).”