3. O the good be - yond all guess - ing, Of a lov - ing deed or look!

When the world's com - plet - ed sto - ry Is un - rolled be - fore His sight;
May His bless - ed ser - vice please us, More than an - y earth - ly joy.
O the won - drous pow'r of bless - ing In a word from God's own Book!

When the saved of ev - 'ry na - tion Join to praise His grace di - vine,
There are souls that must not per - ish, Wand - 'ring sheep that we may find;
Let us spread the great sal - va - tion Till the set - ting of the sun;

Shall these words of com - men - da - tion, Fall up - on your ears, and mine?
Lit - tle lambs that we may cher - ish, Bro - ken hearts that we may bind.
Then we'll hear the com - men - da - tion From the Mas - ters lips, "Well done."
