The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature. It features a melody of quarter and eighth notes with some ties. The lower staff is in bass clef and provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and some moving lines. The lyrics are printed below the upper staff.

there where you left Him, Je - sus is wait-ing now for you.

The second system of music continues the piece. It also consists of two staves in the same key and time signature as the first system. The melody in the upper staff concludes with a final note. The bass staff continues with accompaniment. The lyrics are printed below the upper staff.
