

“The Lord Forsaken Not His Own”

MEAR C. M.

1. "The Lord for - sak - eth not His own," He hears their feebl - est cry,-
2. Have faith in God, and trust His love Who heeds the spar - row's fall;-
3. Tho' days be dark and nights be drear, Nor sun nor stars in sight,

The or - phan's wail, the wid - ow's moan, The wea - ry pil - grim's sigh.
The ten - der care of One a - bove, Who knows and or - ders all.
Let Him thy droop - ing spir - its cheer- At e - ven - time and light.
