The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and a common time signature. It features a melodic line with a long note at the beginning, followed by a series of eighth and quarter notes. The lower staff is in bass clef and provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

name, un - til all the world shall crown Him Lord.
praise Hisname, crown Him Lord.

The second system of music also consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melody from the first system, ending with a long note. The lower staff continues the accompaniment, ending with a final chord. The lyrics are aligned with the notes in the upper staff.
