

O GIVE THANKS UNTO THE LORD

FOR WHIT-SUNDAY

WHIT-SUNDAY

JONES

1. O give thanks unto the Lord, and call up -	on His name:	tell the people what things He hath done.
3. Seek the	Lord and His strength;	seek His face for ev - er - more.
5. His salvation is nigh unto	those who fear Him,	that glory may dwell in the land.
7. Truth shall flourish	on the earth,	[and righteousness shall] look down from heaven.
9. Blessed are the people whose	strength is from Thee,	and in whose heart are Thy ways.

2. O let your songs be of Him , and	praise — Him;	[and let your talking be of]	all His won-drous works.
4. The Lord	gave the word,	[and great was the company of]	those who publish-ed it.
6. Mercy and truth are	met to - gether;	righteousness and	peace have kissed each other.
8. The Lord will give strength	unto His people;	[the Lord will give un-to His people the]	bles - ing of peace.
10. Teach us to do Thy will , for	Thou art our God;	[O let Thy good spirit lead us]	into the paths of righteousness.
