

To Thee We Give Ourselves Today

B♭m(D♭)

Andantino

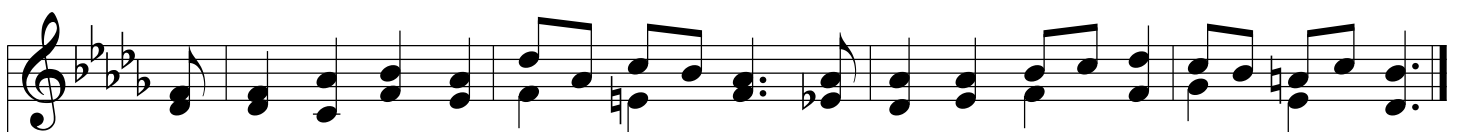

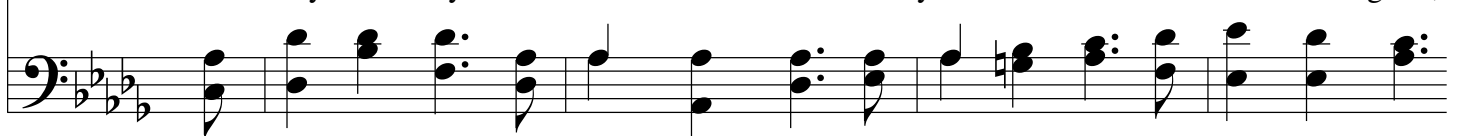

1. To Thee we give our - selves to - day; For - get - ful of the world out - side,
2. Who could en - dure, shouldst Thou, O God, As we de - serve, for - ev - er chide;

We tar - ry in Thy house, O God, From e - ven - tide to e - ven - tide.
We there - fore seek Thy par - d'ning grace From e - ven - tide to e - ven - tide.

From Thine all - search - ing right - eous eye Our deep - est heart can noth - ing hide;
O may we lay to heart how swift The years of life do on - ward glide;

It cri - eth out for Thee, for peace, From e - ven - tide to e - ven - tide.
And learn to live that we may see Thy light at our own e - ven - tide.

