1. The time is swift - ly roll - ing on, When I must faint and die,

2. Let per - se - cu - tion rage a - round, And An - ti - christ ap - pear:

3. My broth - er preach - ers, fare you well, Your fel - low - ship I love;

My bod - y to the dust re - turn, And there for - got - ten lie.

My si - lent dust be - neath the ground, There's no dis - turb - ance there.

In time no more, I shall you see, And soon we'll meet a - bove.
