1. { Come, lit - tle chil - dren, now we may par - take a lit - tle mor - sel, }
For lit - tle songs and lit - tle ways A - dorn'd a great a - pos - tle. }

2. { A lit - tle faith doth might - y deeds, Quite past all my re - count - ing, }
Faith, like a lit - tle mus - tard seed, Can move a loft - y moun - tain. }

3. { A lit - tle cross with cheer - ful - ness, a lit - tle self - de - ni - al, }
Will serve to make our trou - bles less, and bear the great - est tri - al. }

4. { The lit - tle of the lit - tle Lamb Un - to our Lord earth was giv - en, }
Such was our Sav - ior's lit - tle name, The Lord of earth and heav - en. }

A lit - tle drop of Je - sus' blood Can make feast of un - ion;

A lit - tle char - i - ty and zeal, A lit - tle trib - u - la - tion,

The Spir - it like a lit - tle dove On Je - sus once de - scend - ed;

A lit - tle voice that's small and still Can rule the whole cre - a - tion;

LOUISIANA 8s, 7s.

It is by lit - tle steps we move In - to full com - mun - ion.

A lit - tle pa - tience makes us feel Great peace and con - so - la - tion.

To show his meek - ness and his love, The em - blem was in - tend - ed.

A lit - tle stone the earth shall fill, And hum - ble ev - 'ry na - tion.
